When Do I Report a Short Term Disability Claim?

If your doctor says you will be out of work for at least ten business days, have your doctor make a copy of your release form. Sign and date the copy to authorize your doctor to give the necessary information about your medical condition to The Hartford nurse.

If you know you're going to be out of work for a pre-scheduled absence (like a pregnancy) you can call up to 2 weeks in advance.

What Can I Expect While I'm Out on Disability?

Our goal is to help you get well and return to work as quickly and as safely as possible. While you are disabled, The Hartford will assign a claim professional to you who will call you periodically to check on your progress and will discuss return to work possibilities that meet your functional limitations.

I'm Ready to Return to Work – What Now?

GREAT! When you are ready to come back to work let your employer and your Hartford claim professional know that you are ready.

WELCOME BACK!
