Important Notes

1. Emergency funds cannot be granted to reimburse expenses that have already been paid.
2. The following expenses are typically ineligible for emergency funds* (not an exhaustive list):
 - Tuition, fees, health insurance premiums, study abroad costs
 - Non-essential utilities (cable, etc.)
 - Furniture and/or household expenses not related to emergency damage or theft
 - Regularly anticipated expenses
 - Parking tickets, citations, bail bonds
 - Costs for entertainment, recreation, non-emergency travel
3. All other resources, including emergency loans through financial aid, must have been considered and deemed to be insufficient, unavailable, or not accessible in timely manner; i.e. (credit card, payment plans, additional student aid, assistance from family/friends, personal fund options).
4. Applicants must complete all questions in full and submit supporting documentation.
5. Have not previously received Emergency Funds*

exceptions may be granted in the case of extraordinary circumstances at the discretion of the cognizant graduate affairs office.*
